

St. Petersburg Education Committee
St. Petersburg Regional Center for Education Quality Assessment and Information Technology
North-West Branch of the Russian Academy of Education
St. Petersburg Gymnasia No. 2

THIRD INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE
"INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY FOR NEW SCHOOL"

St. Petersburg, March 23, 24, 26, 2012

Dear Colleagues!

We invite you to take part in the Third International Conference "Information Technology for New School" held March 23, 24 and 26, 2012 in St. Petersburg.

Conference Scope

The conference will cover:

- Information technologies in education management, quality control and assessment
- Information technologies in the educational process and accompanying activities (basic and secondary education)
- Open information education environment (including Internet technologies and distance education)
- Professional pedagogical education and ICT competence of the teacher
- ICT for education of disabled people
- New informatization tools and ways to use them

Conference Events

Plenary session in the form of discussion will consider current challenges in the field of education informatization.

Conference participants' reports within the scope of the conference will be presented in section sessions.

Master classes will be held by teachers and other educators, representatives of information technology and informatization tool vendors.

During the conference, innovation products will be demonstrated at the exhibition, and also presentation of innovation products will be held in which leading software vendors will also take part.

Before the conference, online discussion of the main directions within the conference scope will be organized.

Conference Registration and Participation Conditions

You can register as a conference participant and obtain detailed information on the conference since November 15, 2011 at: www.conf.rcokoit.ru

Organization Committee Chairman

A.B. Fedosov